

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota is the home of Sister Janice Iverson, and we are richer because Janice lives among us; and,

Whereas, Anniversaries commemorate the most important aspects of our lives, and we celebrate the anniversaries of those we love, as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Sister Janice joined the sisterhood 50 years ago; and,

Whereas, Sister Janice will observe her Golden Jubilee with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives honor her and celebrate her life; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 29, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join her friends and relatives in wishing her a blessed anniversary, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Sixth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
